What exciting topics can you pursue as a Master's or a PhD student at EECS, IISc?
What exciting research happens here?
Can you apply?
How to apply?
What do you know about IISc?
About Bengaluru?
And the different departments/research groups here?
What is it like to be a graduate student at IISc?
How will it help your career?

Join us for the second coffee-table meeting/information session hosted by the Division of EECS, IISc on the above topics. There will be short presentations and plenty of time for discussion and Q&A. EECS students and faculty will be present in the session to answer questions.
